Jermaine Johnson II set a career high with 11 tackles, 3.0 sacks and 4.0 tackles for loss. In records dating back to 2000, Johnson is the first Seminole to post that stat line in a game and the first player from any ACC school to have those numbers since 2000. Johnson leads the country with 6.0 TFL and 4.5 sacks.

Johnson also added a pass breakup against the Gamecocks.

Running back Jashaun Corbin had 109 yards and scored a touchdown for the fourth straight game. Corbin has back-to-back 100-yard rushing games and three for his career (one at Texas A&M).

As a team, FSU ran for 202 yards against Jacksonville State, the third straight game the Noles have broken the 200-yard rushing barrier. The last time FSU rushed for at least 200 yards in three straight games was 2012, when the Seminoles rushed for 201 vs. Boston College on Oct. 13, 218 at Miami on Oct. 20 and 261 vs. Duke on Oct. 27.

Quarterback McKenzie Milton made his first start as a Seminole, and first since Williams made the most of his start, returning a recovered fumble 27 yards to set up Rector’s catch was the first of his career. Rector also has one rush as a Seminole, Darion Williamson led FSU with 32 receiving yards on three catches, both career highs. He entered the game with three career catches for 27 yards.

Ryan Fitzgerald kicked a career-long 53-yard field goal to give FSU a 17-7 lead in the third quarter. It was the longest of his career and matches the longest by a Seminole over the past nine seasons.

Keyshawn Helton had a career-long 31-yard punt return in the second quarter that set up FSU’s second touchdown of the game. Entering Saturday, Helton had five career punt returns for 26 yards.
