Defensive end Jermaine Johnson II had a half-sack among his 10 tackles. He is the first Seminole lineman since DeMarcus Walker in 2016 with back-to-back games with at least 10 tackles (Johnson had a career-high 11 last week vs. Jacksonville State).

Quarterback Jordan Travis tied a career high with two touchdown passes - an 8-yarder to Treshaun Ward and a 65-yard pass to Ontaria Wilson, both in the first half.

For Ward, it was his first career touchdown catch (and third career touchdown). Travis's connection with Wilson was the longest pass for FSU this season and the second-longest pass-and-catch for each player.

The one-play, nine-second drive was FSU's quickest of the year.

Ward led FSU with 48 yards on the ground; Wilson led FSU with 91 receiving yards. Travis finished the game 5-for-6 for 107 yards and two touchdowns and added 16 rushing yards.

Linebacker Amari Gainer made his first start of the season and tied a career-high with 2.5 tackles for loss. He had eight tackles and one sack, all in the first half.

Defensive back Sidney Williams started his second consecutive game and notched his first career interception, on Wake Forest's opening drive. Last week vs. Jacksonville State, Williams recovered a fumble and returned it 27 yards.

Jammie Robinson (forced) and Dennis Briggs Jr. (recovered) teamed up on a fumble, FSU's second takeaway of the first quarter.

Redshirt freshman offensive lineman Zane Herring made his Seminole debut in the first quarter.
