Jashaun Corbin finished with 159 rushing yards, including a 75-yard touchdown on the second play after halftime, and is averaging 9.1 yards per rush and 109.8 rushing yards per game through the season’s first four games.

Corbin, who also had an 89-yard touchdown run in the season opener vs. No. 9 Notre Dame, is the fourth player in FSU history with a pair of touchdown runs of at least 75 yards in a season (Dalvin Cook, 2015; Chris Thompson, 2010; Sammie Smith, 1987).

Corbin has broken the 100-yard rushing mark in three of four games this season.

Treshuan Ward ran 20 yards for a touchdown to get FSU on the board. Corbin and Jermaine Johnson II had three tackles, including 1.0 sack, and two quarterback hurries. He has 6.0 sacks this season, the most for a Seminole since Brian Burns had 10.0 in 2018.

Defensive back Jammie Robinson led FSU with 13 tackles, his most as a Seminole and his sixth career game with double digit tackles. Robinson’s 13 tackles were the most for a Seminole since Hamsah Nasirildeen had 22 at Boston College in 2019.

Florida State’s defense held Louisville to 0 points, 79 total yards, 1-for-8 on 3rd-down attempts and 0-for-1 on 4th-down attempts in the second half.

FSU held an ACC opponent scoreless in a half for the first time since shutting out North Carolina State in the second half on Nov. 14, 2015.

The Seminoles held Louisville to 131 total yards rushing, ending Louisville’s streak of five consecutive 150-yard rushing games and holding the Cardinals to their lowest rushing total since rushing for 96 yards at No. 4 Notre Dame on Oct. 17, 2020.

FSU has started four different offensive line combinations in the first four games of the season.

Tight end Jordan Wilson made his first start as a Seminole, and ninth of his career.

Running back D.J. Williams, defensive tackle Joshua Farmer and defensive back Omarion Cooper made their Seminole debuts Saturday.
